

Everyday Resurrection

everyday wonder

When have you needed to make a trade, something old for something new (or new to you!)? Why & what happened?

Read Matthew 28:1-10, Luke 24:4-12, and John 20:1-18.

Q: What stands out as truly wondrous in this account?

Consider these 3 ways Jesus' resurrection day still works wonders today:

1. Bring your fear. Trade for wondrous faith.

Q: What might be scaring you these days? How will you trade for stronger faith?

2. Bring your doubts. Trade for wondrous details.

Q: What have been your biggest doubts? How will you trade for the solid details about Christ and his promises?

3. Bring your sinful failure. Trade for wondrous forgiveness.

Q: When have you felt like a failure and/or guilt's gotten the best of you? What would it mean for you to trade for Jesus' lasting forgiveness?

Maximize everyday resurrection this coming week

Join others in surprise and wonder.

Join the mix at Manor Church the next two Sundays.

Join a new discipleship group (see the opps on the lobby's big board).

Tell someone today, "I believe Jesus. His resurrection is real!"

Let Jesus' resurrection run your life.

Q: How can you take action on one or more of the above maximizers?

Get Ready for Next Week:

Everyday Resurrection: everyday meals

Read each day from Psalm 116, Luke 24:13-35, and John 21:1-14.