

Everyday Resurrection

everyday friends

Recall getting away somewhere very restorative and joyful (like the mountains or the shore), then coming back home with the perspective: "I really need to hold onto this mindset!" What happened a few days after you returned?

Why do you think we commonly lose our Easter time, "everyday resurrection" perspective?

Read the following story: Luke 24:36-53. Then contemplate each of these insights:

- Keep living everyday resurrection in the company of friends.
- Keep living everyday resurrection via formation-by-resurrection focus. (See Ephesians 2:5-6 & Colossians 3:1-2)
- Keep living everyday resurrection by daily repenting and following Jesus.
- Keep living everyday resurrection by integrating Christ in all your ordinaries.
- Keep living everyday resurrection with daily time in God's Word, witness, and worship.
- Keep living everyday resurrection flowing from your new identity. (See Romans 6:4 & Colossians 2:12)

Which of these insights holds the most potential for helping you sustain resurrection living? Why?

What will you do about it? Share one or two tangible plans for responsive action.
