

SO Loved

What's a situation where you've been deeply disappointed, maybe even found yourself saying: "No way! Unbelievable! It wasn't supposed to go this way."?

Read John 11:1-3.

Loving Lesson #1: Jesus loves you deeply—as your dearest friend.

Q: What keeps you from living daily in light of this reality?

Q: What would it look like for you to truly believe and live like his love for you is real every day?

Read John 11:4-16.

Loving Lesson #2: Jesus loves you deeply with his wiser timing and bigger purposes.

Q: When have you said, "God, where are you? What's taking you so long? Is this one beyond you, Lord?"

Q: How do you need to reorient your perspective right now, to say, "FYG. For your glory, Lord, in every situation. Really."

Read John 11:17-37.

Loving Lesson #3: Jesus loves you deeply with genuine, spontaneous empathy.

Q: What most moves you about Jesus' depth of real love and emotions in this scene?

Q: Is your own outlook and belief bolstered by seeing Jesus as emotional about people's daily heartaches, hurts, and losses? Why or why not?

Read John 11:38-47.

Loving Lesson #4: Jesus loves you deeply with his life-giving power.

Q: How can Christ's resurrection power bring you peace, bolster your belief, or otherwise move you to trust him right now in a disappointing situation?
