

SO Loved

Consider how you are sustained and nourished. Do you stay close to the one true Vine in your daily routine?

Spend time in prayer, asking that God might help you to identify any distractions you have present that may be barriers to a deepened relationship with Jesus. Consider practical ways you might be able to prune such distractions.

Identify one practical, action-oriented step, that you can engage today in order to tend to another person in your life (and really love on them well in Jesus-like ways).

Are you practicing Sabbath and allowing margin in your own life? Look at your calendar and schedule some time for rest. Pray that the Lord will meet you in this time to grant you peace and rejuvenation.
