

SO Loved

Recall a time when something good was broken, damaged, and/or scattered. What happened? How did you handle it?

Ponder and reflect on life's deeper situations of damage, fractures, frazzles, chaos, and relational division.

What might be one such situation in your life right now?

Read John 16, vs. 32 through John 17:26.

What's encouraging, stirring, and hopeful for you about Jesus' prayer?
