What's been a really big YES you've said in life? Why? What made it such a big YES?

How do you sense God calling you? To what? To whom? To where?

What's keeping you from saying a humble, hearty "yes!"?

Read Luke 1:26-38.

What stuns you about Gabriel's approach and message?

What stuns you about Mary's response?

Consider these three motivators for saying "yes!"

1. God's creative promises—the Holy Spirit's old stories.
2. Mary-like, grace-based faith. Ask honest, creative Qs.
3. Jesus' own empowering presence. He's transforming you!

Revisit and ponder the opening questions.

What will it take for you to start saying "yes!"? Might one of these "motivators" help?
