

ALL YOUR little BIG THINGS

A Little While

When have you encountered the big negative effect of something that seemed very little? (like a little stone that made a big crack in your windshield, a tiny leak under the sink, or a little nail in your tire)

Review Philippians 4:13. How is this encouraging to you this week?

Explore these verses. How does the unique imagery in each serve to drive home the warning? In each verse, what is being urged?

Ponder the following helpful ways to kick hurtful habits:

Produce your own "scary movie." What's the likely, ugly, worst-case outcome if you do not change?

Architect your environment.

Build your team.

Invite life-giving accountability.

Decide your deepest heart values.

Make new habits following Jesus.

What should one or more of these look like in your life? How can you commit and plan for Christ-honoring success?

Get Ready for Next Week:

Read each day from one or more of the following: Psalm 37:16; Proverbs 15:16 and 16:8; Matthew 14:13-21; 2 Corinthians 9.
