

BREAKING NEWS

Good News, Really?

When have you had some really good news, the kind you couldn't wait to share? What happened?

Explore Luke 4:16-22.

Make 3 to 5 observations from these verses. What stands out to you as interesting or creates curious questions?

What Jesus read aloud is from Isaiah 61:1-2. Compare this expression of "good news" with Isaiah 41:27 and Isaiah 52:7.

What are your biggest discoveries about King Jesus' good news?

Why is King Jesus' breaking news SO truly good?

Read Isaiah 26:3-4 and Proverbs 15:30.

Two good news implications for our lives today

1. Decide to more intentionally listen to God's good news every day.
2. Let the good news poke, prod, stir, and recalibrate your categories.

How can you take action on one or both of these? What difference might such action(s) make?

Get Ready for Next Week:

BREAKING NEWS: Bad News, Really?

Read each day from Luke 3:15-20; Genesis 3; Mark 1:14-15.