

Your OMNI Year

omnipotence

What might seem really hard, enemy-like, too difficult—insurmountable even—at the start of 2025?

Omnipotence means your God is all-powerful.

Explore Jeremiah's words in Jeremiah 32:17. Think carefully about his various phrases.

What is he expressing? On what basis?

Explore an ancient Hebrew story: 1 Samuel 17.

What astounds you in this story?

Dive deep into Shepherd David's words in vs. 45-47.

How do these lines from David's lips express God's omnipotence?

Ponder two almighty steps for facing all your enemies in 2025:

1st Sling-and-stone skills training

2nd Heart-and-soul training

How might you employ each of these steps in the opening days of this new year? What will you do different, and what difference can it make?

Look at Paul's words in 1 Corinthians 16:9. When have you seen this to be true?

Read Jesus' words in Matthew 22:37. What will it mean to declare 2025 to be your all-in year?

Get Ready for Next Week:

Read each day from Psalm 16:9-11, Psalm 143, and Philippians 3:8-11.