

ASCEND

When have you taken a trip somewhere, but vision turned horrible? (perhaps due to rain, fog, snow, or extreme darkness)

What happened?

When have you experienced your life outlook in a similar way? Overall, your perspective/vision was difficult emotionally and spiritually.

Read and ponder Psalm 132. Consider three brighter vistas.

Vista 1: Look back. Recall amazing scenes in the past kingdom story (Psalm 132:1-5).

What's stunning to you about these lines?

When's the last time you made a heartfelt, loving pledge?

What would it look like for you to stretch creatively in worship and giving?

Vista 2: Look up, right now! Reenact real-time encounters, worshiping the King (Psalm 132:6-10).

What's stunning to you about these lines?

Where do you worship the King? (Consider Jesus' explanation in John 4:20-26.)

Vista 3: Look to the future—King Jesus shining rule and reign forever (Psalm 132:11-18).

What's stunning to you about these lines?

How will you climb higher with brighter vision to encounter glowing vistas?
