

Faith@Work

What was your first job? Did you enjoy your work? Why or why not?

Explore Colossians 3:23-24, Genesis 2:15, Exodus 20:8-11, and Psalms 90:16-17.

In light of the truths you just explored, ponder and answer these questions:

Where do I see God's gifts and creativity in my work?

What do you actually enjoy? Where do you see God's fingerprints?

How can I intentionally integrate my faith in Christ with my daily labors?

Where could you bring more of Jesus into your workplace—your attitude, conversations, ethics, relationships, creativity, or service?

What's especially challenging right now—and where can I find encouragement?

Maybe your Scripture is Colossians 3:23.

Maybe Psalms 90.

Maybe Romans 8.

Or maybe it's simply this: Jesus sees. Jesus knows. Jesus is with me.

Where do I need to stop, rest, and practice Sabbath more intentionally?

Where do you need to breathe?

Where do you need to worship?

Where do you need to put down your phone, your laptop, and your responsibilities and remember that you are God's beloved child?

How can I see my daily work carrying heavenly, eternal impact?

What if tomorrow isn't merely Monday? What if tomorrow is another opportunity to serve Jesus?

Another opportunity to love somebody?

Another opportunity to create something beautiful?

Another opportunity to act ethically?

Another opportunity to encourage someone?

Another opportunity to reflect Christ?

Another opportunity to participate in God's restoring work?

Get Ready for Next Sunday!

Read Luke 15 in anticipation of our new series Lost and Found.