

Lost & Found

Recall a time you lost something quite valuable, something inside your house. What happened? How did you find it?

Read and bring your noticing skills to Luke 15:8-10.

What do you see with fresh eyes in this little lost-and-found story?

Contemplate these keen insights.

- See judgy conflict, the story's backstory. (review Luke 15:1-2 for the reason Jesus is telling three stories)
- See the power in parable-stories.
- See with divine vision.
- See heaven's sweet celebration. Party like that!

Which of these insights stirs you and challenges your own paradigms and practices?

Ponder these personal Qs about your own Lost & Found story:

- Ever felt lost? What was your life like lost?
- How were you found?
- What's worth celebrating right now?

What's one intentional, passionate step you can take this week to see others with divine vision and love like Jesus with greater clarity?

Get Ready for Next Week!

Read Luke 15 in two or three different translations.